The O'Kelly's Spotted Orchid

Our logo depicts the O'Kelly's Spotted Orchid. This wildflower subspecies was named after amateur botanist, Patrick B O'Kelly of Ballyvaughan, who ran a nursery business at the end of the nineteenth century selling Burren plants.

*Snow-white and sweetly fragrant, this wildflower, which is one of the Burren's greatest treasures,
is a member of the Spotted-Orchid clan.*
